

Bad news. The State of Kentucky has made it illegal for third party groups to provide or distribute absentee ballot applications.

The fastest way for you to get your absentee ballot application is to call your Local Election Official and ask them to send you one. Here is the contact information for your Local Election Official:

--

You might also want to call your Secretary of State's office and ask them to post the absentee ballot application online as a downloadable PDF. This is common practice in 48 other states and the District of Columbia.

Kentucky Secretary of State: (502) 564-3490